

Disclaimer

This disclaimer applies to all information on this site, including any and all services, products and/or any courses offered. The scientific data detailed is intended for informational purposes only and not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent diseases and has not been evaluated by the FDA.

Energy in Symmetry is an NLP, Hypnotherapy and Reiki/Energy Healing practice that is for the purpose of relaxation and relief of tension associated with stress, along with helping to improve a persons stuck mindset or behaviors so they can live a better positive life as a whole. It is in no way a substitute for medical or psychological healthcare. This includes any/all medication or any type of medical counseling.

There are no known harmful side effects that are caused by Reiki, NLP, or Hypnotherapy. These modalities are a natural, holistic approach that is to be used in conjunction with any current medicine or medical treatment you may be receiving. Any ailments, illnesses or counseling needed in regards to medical or psychological care should be sought after by a licensed medical professional.

Understand that if after a session, you have any severe or abnormal symptom(s), that it was not due to your session. You may be experiencing an illness or medical condition where you should notify a medical professional immediately.

There are no promises or guarantees in the benefits or outcome you will receive of your session. As all services provided are simply offered as tools of support to guide and facilitate your own bodies process of self-healing and thought patterns that lead you to a better way of life. Past outcomes of sessions and performances is also not a guarantee in future sessions and outcomes, as each persons success depends upon the individual themselves.

Energy in Symmetry abides by an ethical code of conduct and professionalism. Therefore, Energy in Symmetry will not provide any services outside of the qualified scope of this practice.

Any questions you many have please contact Energy in Symmetry at energyinsymmetry@gmail.com